Scott,
Even though we haven't got along the whole year we've managed to become pretty good friends. I hope you had a good summer
and I'll see you next year.

Go a future senior,
I wish you a good summer and I was very nice knowing
you this year even though

Battalion Staff

CDR Mario Jimenez
Battalion Commander

Mario was born in Miami, Florida and raised in San Jose, Costa Rica. He has attended Admiral Farragut Academy for four years, during which he's been an active member of the rifle team and earned many individual medals by competing in team matches.

Mario hopes to attend the United States Naval Academy and shoot for this renowned school. He says: "When first I thought about graduating and going to college, I was scared. Now I want to go out and take on all the challenges."

LCDR George Emmanuel
Battalion Executive Officer

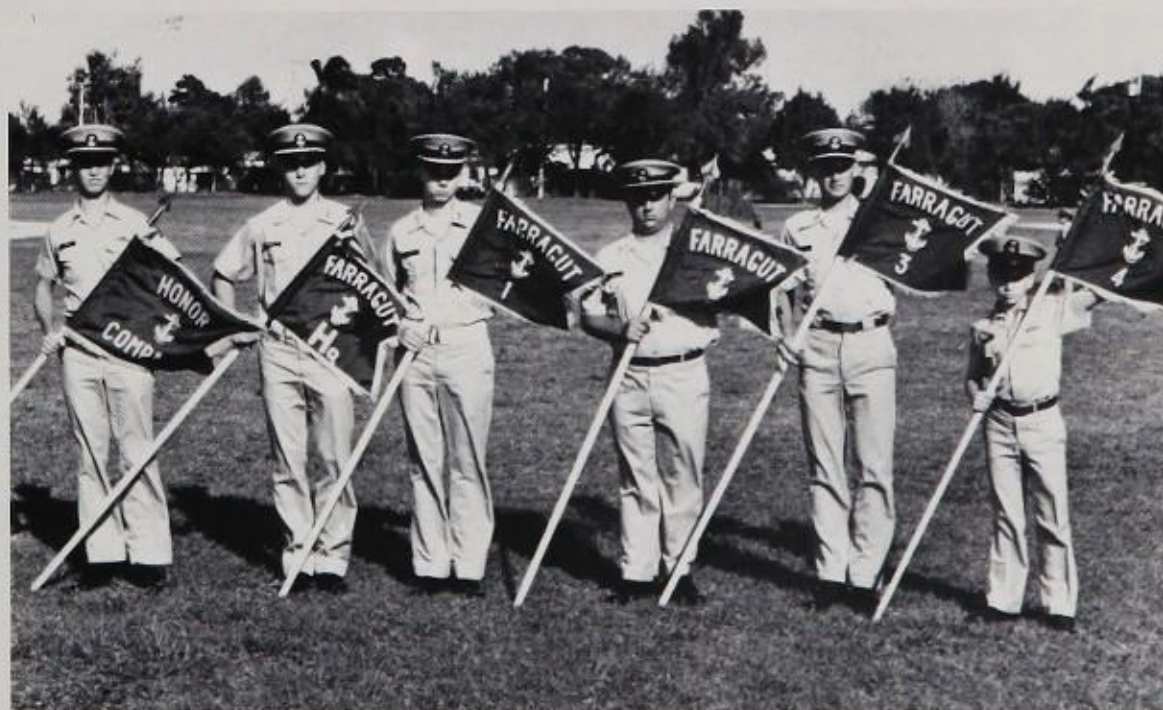

George was born in Long Island, New York and moved to St. Petersburg to attend Admiral Farragut Academy four years ago. He says that what he will take with him from his experience in a boarding school environment will be friends to keep forever.

George says: "Being the Battalion Executive Officer and Vice President of my senior class is exactly what I needed to mature, and I'm sure it will help me succeed in the future."

Headquarters Company

LT Andrew "Dax" Foster
Headquarters Company Commander

Dax was born in Kingston, Jamaica but was raised in the Cayman Islands. He has attended Admiral Farragut Academy for four and a half years, during which time he feels he has been taught perseverance and discretion. He plans on going to Grand Cayman to take part in his family company.

Dax feels that one of his most memorable and honorable experiences at Farragut was becoming Headquarters Company Commander. He says: "HQ Company showed me that with proper guidance you can accomplish anything. You must also show drive and self-motivation. With those qualities, success is in your path of direction for sure."

First Company

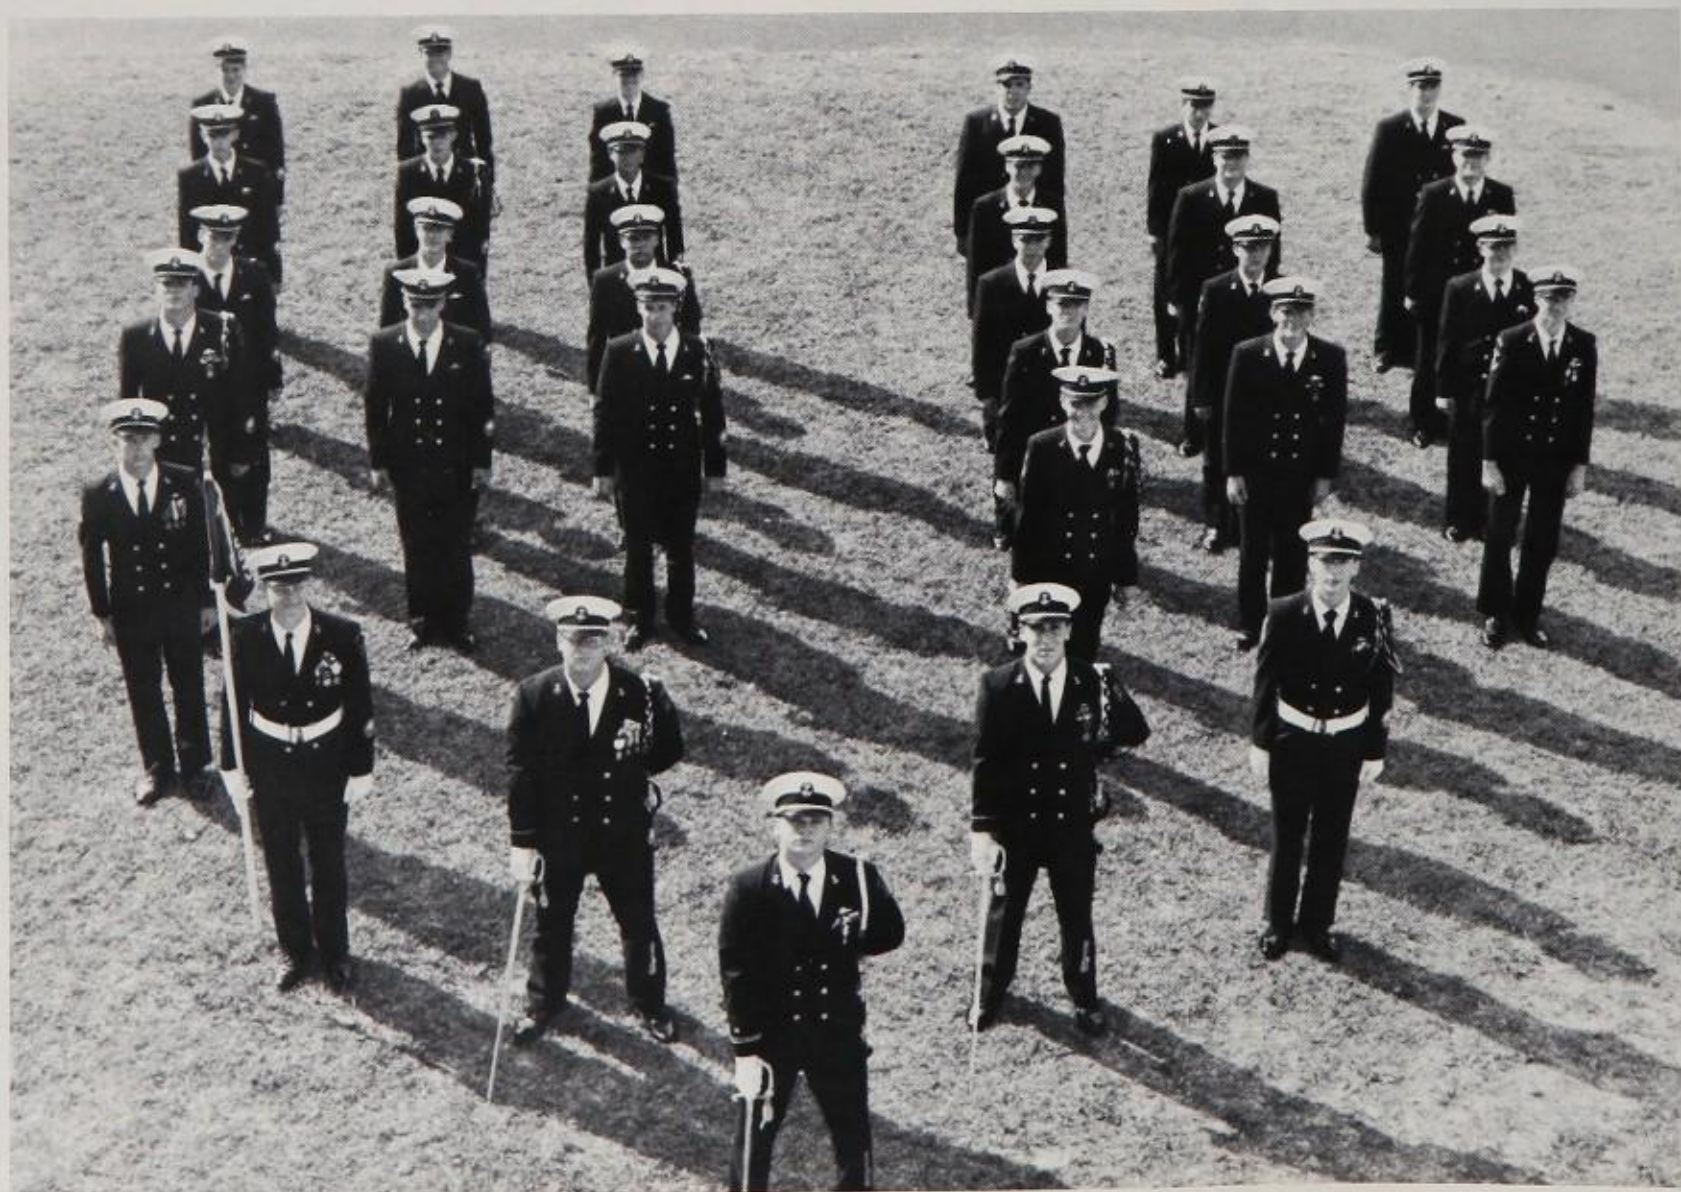

LT Christopher G. Luetgert
First Company Commander

Christopher was born in Hinsdale, Illinois but has spent much of his life in Florida. This is his second year at Admiral Farragut. The greatest thing he has learned from Farragut is responsibility. He believes that this will prepare him for the tremendous long term goals he has set for his future. He also believes that the friends you meet in a boarding school environment will remain friends forever. His highest achievements while attending Farragut took place during baseball and football, and also include being promoted to Lieutenant after attending the National Naval ROTC Leadership Academy in Dallas, Texas.

Christopher says: "Leadership is born within. It can be strengthened or weakened but one either has it or does not have it. In the future, I plan to apply the leadership I have learned at Farragut to a large corporate structure."

Second Company

LT Stephen Rains
Second Company Commander

Stephen was born in Tampa, Florida and has attended Admiral Farragut Academy for four years through which he's learned patience, tact, how to deal with different people and different problems. His greatest accomplishment is being a company commander.

Stephen says: "I have obtained a great deal of direction at Farragut from many people and in many ways, which I think has been of enormous help."

Third Company

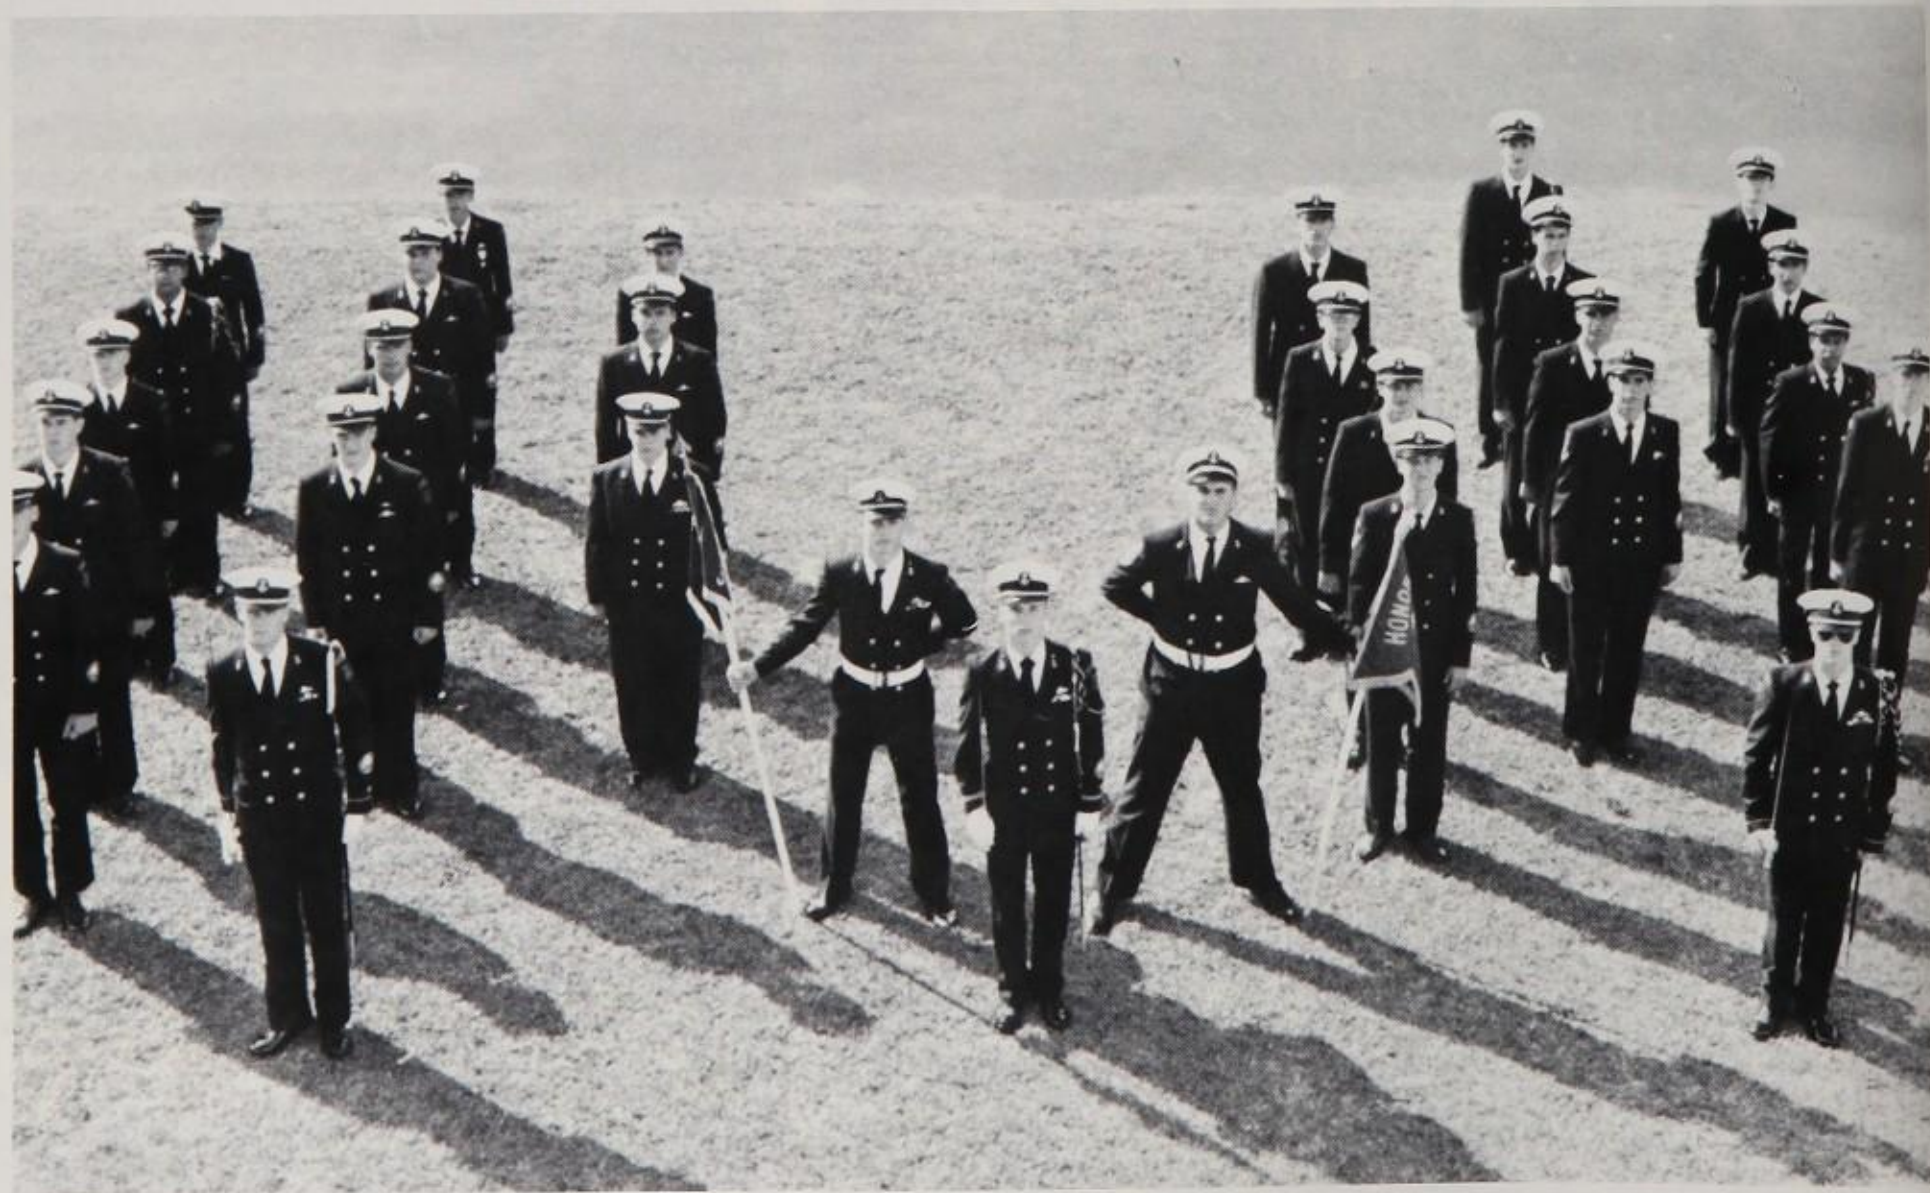

LT Roger Boswell
Third Company Commander

Roger was born in Glen Ridge, New Jersey, but has spent most of his life in Flemington, New Jersey. He has attended Admiral Farragut Academy and lived in St. Petersburg for the past three years. The greatest things he's learned over the years here at Farragut are patience and leadership. He believes these qualities will help him in the future pursuit of a successful career within the medical field. His highest achievement at AFA has been being promoted to 3rd Company Commander and having the opportunity to lead a group of young men who have learned that they can get whatever they want if they all strive hard enough.

Roger says: "Third Company has proven that when a group joins together to attain a worthy goal, the job can be done through team work."

Fourth Company Commander

Kurt was born and raised in Toronto, Canada and has attended Admiral Farragut Academy for seven years. From the Academy, Kurt says he has learned discipline, leadership, good judgment, and honor. Kurt plans to attend Sheridan College in Canada and earn a degree in criminology. His greatest achievement at school is becoming a company commander and graduating.

Kurt states: "I would like to thank my parents, the faculty, and my friends for all their help and support. I would also like to thank CDR Cooper for all his help."

Homecoming 1987

The bleachers were filled with standing-room only for the 1987 Homecoming. Over 80 alumni attended, including a special group of alumni and their families from the Class of 1947 through 1950. The group included the 1947 Battalion Commander, John Apgar. Helping to plan the event was Chester Miller, Class of '47.

Also eight members of the Class of 1970 visited as a group with CAPT Orie T. Banks, Dean Emeritus, who returned for the special event.

Parents Weekend

Parents and friends sat in on open classes during Parents Weekend and visited with other parents and faculty throughout the two-day event. The Volunteer Parents Group worked long and hard to make the event a total success.

Homecoming Queens

Escorted by cadet officers, the five Homecoming Queen finalists drove around the track in individual convertibles before a Homecoming crowd of over 350 parents, alumni and friends. The Queen, Rosemary Reehling, received her crown from CAPT Michael Moriarty, Headmaster.

Swimming

The swim team ended another successful season with an 8-1 tri-meet record. Although they achieved an impressive fourth place finish at citys, which they had won the previous four years, the swim team served a coup de grace at districts, dominating all 30 teams to capture the district title, with 9 swimmers qualified for the state meet.

At the state meet, Robert Utley won his two events, setting state records in both, and George Emmanuel finished eighth and ninth in his. They carried the team to an impressive 8th place at the state meet. There was a strong supporting cast including Brett Clarke and Ed Smith, who will be returning next year to keep the winning tradition at Farragut.

Cross Country

The 1987 "Blue Wave" Cross Country Team had another very successful season. Throughout the season they were ranked in the top ten in the state poll, and rallied their dual meet record to 73-3, in the past seven years.

Starting the season with many hard invitationals, the young Jackets learned to run, and compete with the best. Head Coach Al McRoberts makes no bones about running in large meets. He simply explains, "to be the best, you have to run with the best". And they did, at the Largo, Venice, Leto, Countryside, Palmetto, Gateway, and Avon Park Invitationals.

The "Blue Wave" became the second team in school history to qualify for the state meet. They did this by placing fourth in the 29 team Class AA District III Championship. At the state meet, they had a shot at winning the state championship, but everyone posted time much slower than the previous week's, and walked away with a disappointing 10th Place.

The team was led by sophomore star, Keith Groves, who was ranked 9th as an individual in the state. He ran many races in the low 16's, setting a personal best of 16:10. He says he hopes to break the school record, 15:36 held by Kris Smith, next year. Other members of the team were seniors Kurt Logan and Eric Burns, junior Kevin Long, sophomore Charles Staab, Dean Capinegro and Robert Morris.

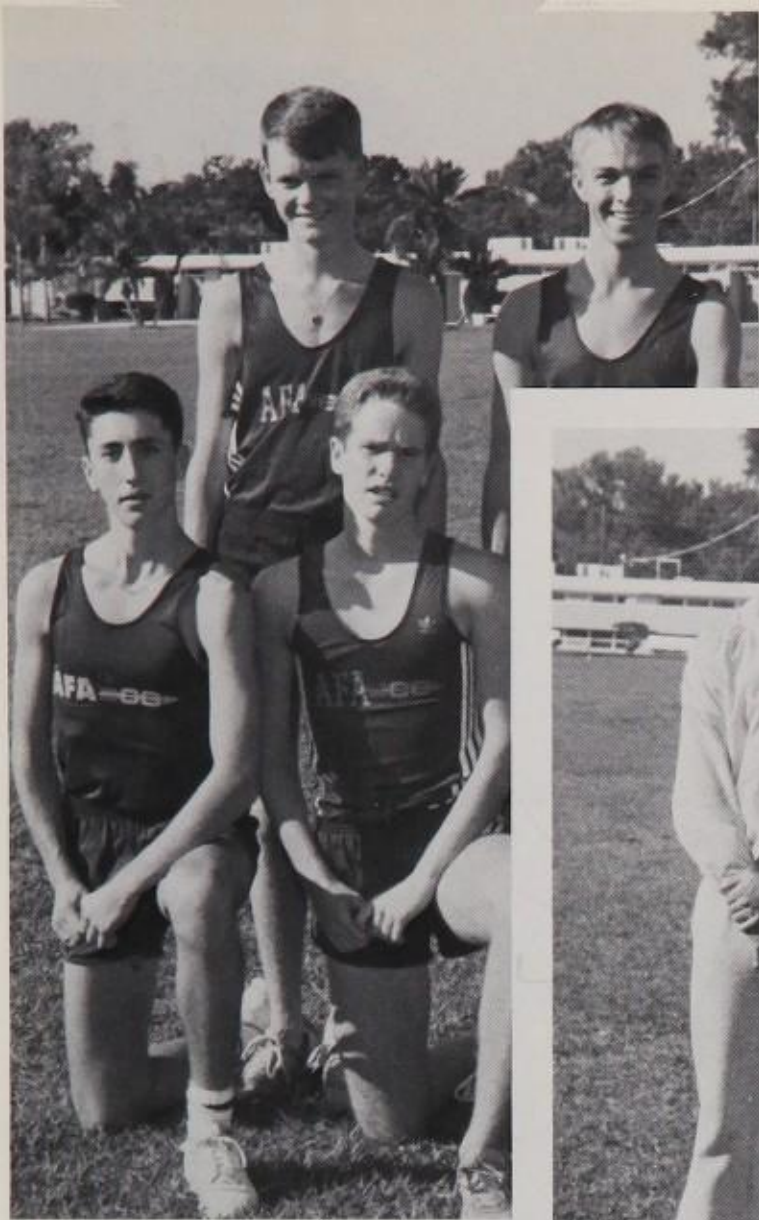

Losing only two members to graduation, the team should be a driving force in the future.

Football

A.F.A. football suffered a disappointing season marred by mistakes and plagued by injuries. Youth and inexperience also contributed to the team's weakness, but the effort shown this year will surely produce a strong team in the following years.

The team did produce some outstanding players who, faced with a losing season, still fought hard and never gave up. Rob VanDien caught seven interceptions throughout the season and the line forced a lot of turnovers. Steven Leclerc was extremely helpful to the defense and Vince Cotroneo played tough as a linebacker. Offensively, the Blue Jackets were weakened by injuries to quarterback Mike Fredericks and to full-back Lee Richards. With Fredericks out, sophomore Jason Wagener stepped in and became accustomed to the Jackets offensive scheme. Danny DiAngelus caught 13 passes in the season for 165 yards and was ranked in the top 20 in the county. Also, Joe Hilliard made a significant contribution on both sides of the ball.

The season marked the end of high school football for two 4-year linemen, David Henning and Anthony DiAngelus, who played both offensively and defensively throughout the season. Wilson Hill and Bobby Brice are the most likely candidates to fill these positions next year.

As the season closed, it said goodbye to another group of senior players. They were Cris Evans, Rob VanDien, Mike Fredericks, Anthony DiAngelus, David Henning, Dax Foster, Lee Richards, Glenn McClung, Duane Stanford, Roger Boswell, and Jon Haley.

Varsity Basketball

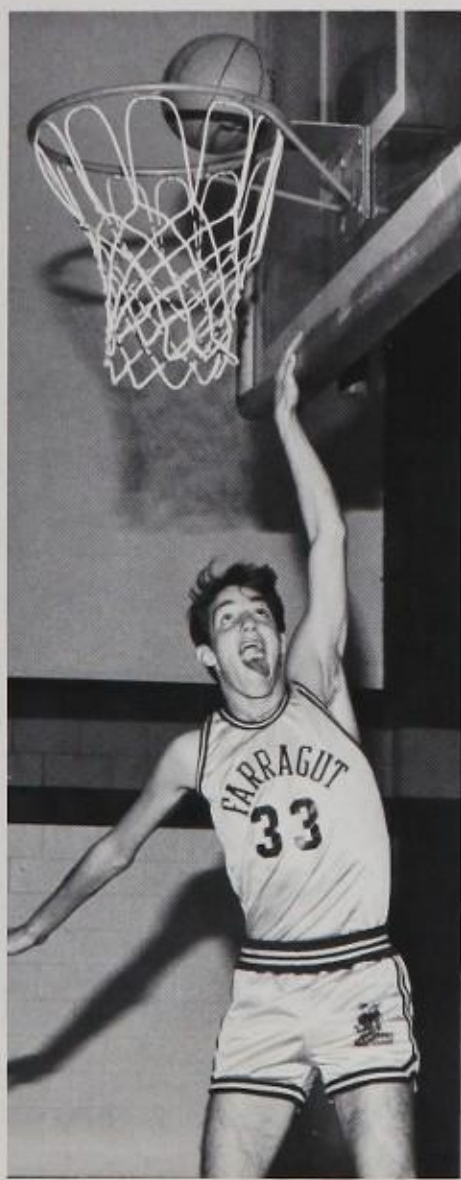

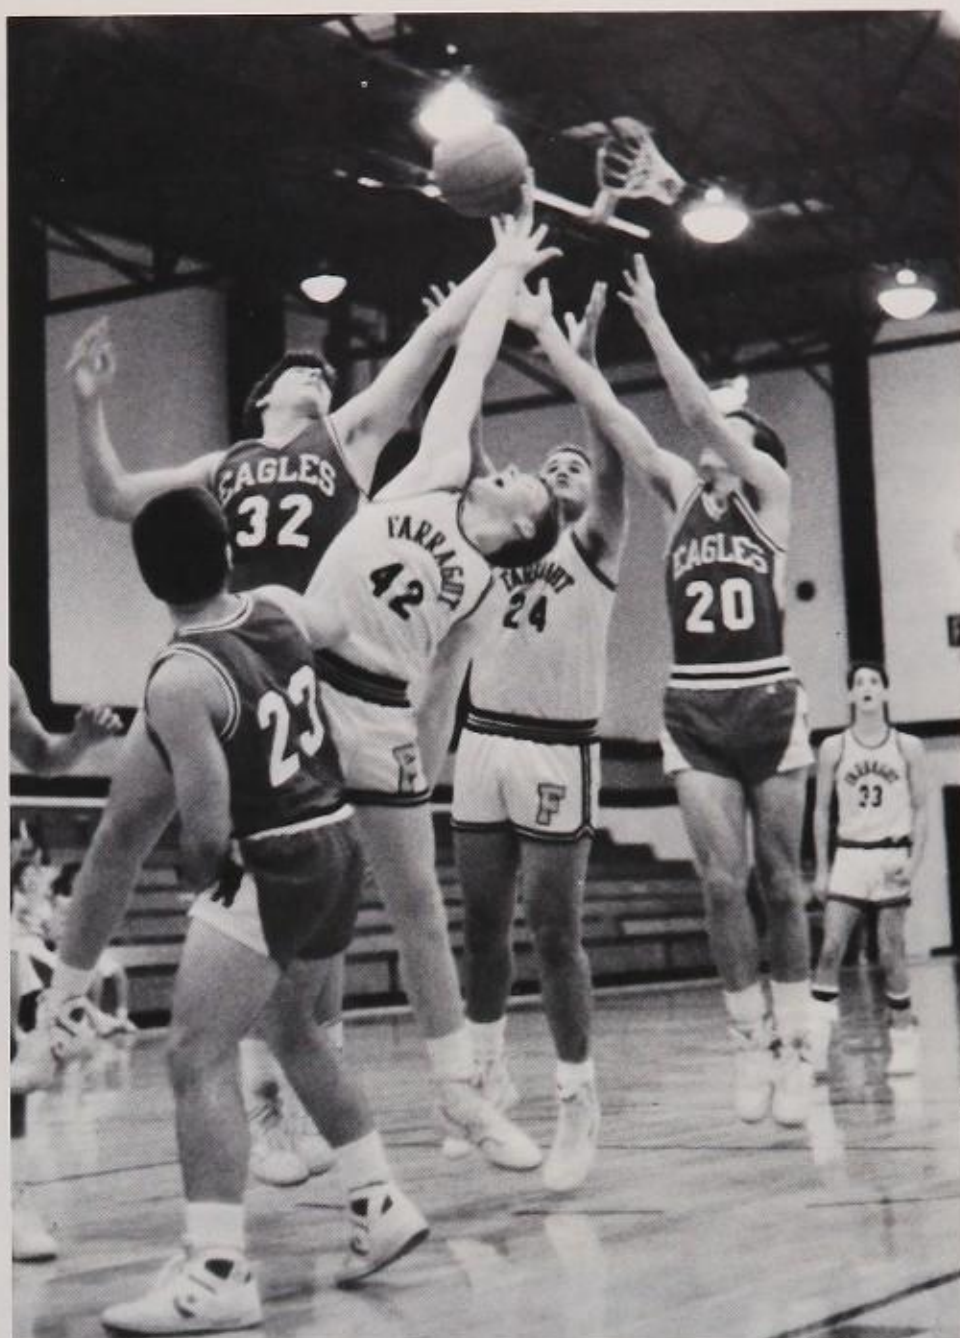

This year's team had a rollercoaster season with several "highs and lows". Coach Stowell had three starters from last year's squad consisting of Mark Carretta, Joe Hilliard, and Mark Neitzke. The outside threat was Brad Larsen, who played a big part in the team's scoring. The rest of the scoring was diversified among the other players. This year, Farragut had great depth in their bench with young talent such as Jay Fairbanks, Tony Gianguzzi, Kevin Long, Rob Atkisson, and Burt Cramer. With this kind of talent, the Bluejackets look to be a force in the future.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Hope for the future is raised on the Junior Varsity practice court. The talent and intensity displayed by this team were often impressive. Jason Wagener, Doug Sokolowski, and Joe DeVito presented a formidable front line, and the ball handling of Steven "Spuds" Leclerc and Dennis Szurkus often sparkled. The bench was ignited by its "sixth man", Chad "Boa" Busha, and contributions by Stuart Fitzgerald and Robbie Hard cannot be ignored. Junior varsity's future fortunes lie in the capable hands of the hardworking Courtney Kibbe and Steve "Sir Walter" Raleigh.

Lower School Basketball

The 1987-88 Lower School Basketball Team was successful in spirit as well as on the court. The winning combination of Matthew Sokolowski, Charles Rice, Doug Dorsey, Kevin Heina, and Mark David attained a winning record during the season. With each game, the boys grew and improved tremendously. Determination and hustle were the main goals of each contest.

Varsity Soccer

Although the 1987-88 soccer team was not spectacular in the win-loss columns, it supplied enough excitement and flair to last for several seasons. Conditioning, stamina, and fundamental skills were the watchword of the season. Everyone on the team worked together under the watchful eye of Coach Monroe. If there's one thing to be mentioned about the soccer team, it would have to be outstanding play in goal. The aggressiveness of the sweepers and defenders left an imprint on the entire league. Speed and agility of the midfield brought many thrilling moments. We salute the A.F.A. soccer team for a superb effort.

Lower School Soccer

This year's Lower School Soccer team was one of the best that anyone could remember. The discipline esprit de corps, and desire of the team led them to an 8-4-1 overall record.

The team finished second in both the Conference and the Conference Tournament which added two new trophies to the trophy case.

Coaches Monroe and Nicholson felt that this year's team was exceptional in unselfish team play. Almost 40 goals were scored by the well balanced offense which was supported by the strong defense.

This year's team consisted of over 24 athletes from sixth through eighth grades who have set as a goal the accomplishment of a 1st Place finish next year. Every player contributed "playing-time" in every game, with outstanding play turned in at Forward Mid-field, and defense.

Varsity Track & Field

The 1988 track team dedicated themselves to winning. In turn, they had a respectable season, and kept the winning track tradition alive. The nucleus of this year's group, the distance runners, include Eric Burns, Keith Groves, and Dean Capinegro. Robert Inman and Brett Clarke dominated the sprints, and Marc Fortune tried to better his last year's fifth place finish in states in the pole vault.

The Class of '88

The Class of '88 was born in September of 1980 with twins: Tony Capinegro and Anthony DiAngelus. Years passed: brothers Logan, Burns, Kirkconnell, Fredericks, Marchand, and McClung arrived, and were later joined by many others. As time passed, they developed a strong bond of friendship and worked well together. And so it went until 1988 when the first case of Senioritis appeared. It soon rose to epidemic proportions as seniors became antsy with the prospect of freedom looming before them. Exams were excruciating but the reward was sweet. The diplomas they held were proof of their effort and they were proud. When all of the hands had been shaken and all the congratulations had been given, it was finally time for them to say ...

GOODBYE

SENIOR MOST LIKELY ...

Blanton — Senior most likely to work at Publix.
Boswell — Senior Howie Mandell.
Bottoms — Most likely to do laundry.
Burns — Most likely to work at B.K.
Capinegro — Senior absentee.

Fredericks — Senior Mario Andretti.
Gazi — Most likely to lead a hunger strike.
Gibson — Most likely to become a priest.
Goldstein — Most likely to break up a fight.
Haber — Senior bagel.
Haley — Most likely to send a son to AFA.
Henning — Senior Pizza Man.
Hergett — Senior most likely to be mafia hit man.
Inman — Most likely to be right.
Jimenez — Senior least likely to teach English.
Kirkconnell — Most likely to be of age.
Kooy — Senior body builder.
Loader — Senior ?.
Logan — Senior MIA.
Luetgert — Most likely to be a police officer.
Marchand — Senior alien.
Mitha — Senior Buddhist.

IT'S BEEN A HELL OF A YEAR
AND NOW IT'S OVER. HAVE A WILD AND EXCITING SUMMER.
HOPE TO SEE YOU NEXT YEAR.

Scott - well, you're going to be a senior soon, and I'll still be a lowly sophomore,
but it was fun knowing ya!
Hope to see you again
after next year.

SCOTT
well it's been so
fun. The senior class was... interesting. Next year will be the best.
Party in late if its
still there when you get there. Drop a line
